

Garrison, W. L.

1858

14 Dix Place, May 25.

Dear Mr. Parker:

181 I was so interrupted by company to a late hour last night, that I have found it impossible to look over your manuscript, though I tried to do my best. You say it is written so plain that he who runs may read it — "if he can." I can say, on an examination of it, that its chirography is such as to furnish a very strong inducement for any man to run who attempts to read it!

However, I trust that, by the aid of your good wife, Miss Stephenson, Wendell Phillips, Samuel May, Jr., Robert F. Wallcut, Winchell Yerrinton, and a few others, we shall be able to decipher it, so as to print it in the Liberator without any serious blunders.

Your puzzled friend
Wm. Lloyd Garrison.

Rev. Theodore Parker.

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]